NORWICH BULLETIN

Wednesday marriag was the coldest one as yet experienced during the pres-ent winter. Practically every thermom-eter in Williamstic registered below the sero murit before day break. It was two below at six o'clock at the dairy de-naturate of the Cannecteut Agricultural partment of the Connecticut Agricultural college, at the pumping station in Mans-leid it was four below, and at Johnson's store is Scotland it was three below while at South Coventry it was four below. As is usual the record report for cold weather in this city came from Dion's store on Ash street where six de prees below zero wore registered at $.45 p'clock. A record branker for the morn-ing cold weather was reported by Henry Cole of Dunham's gracery store. Mans-field Center, who stated that the ther-mometer at the back side of his home registered twelve below at 5.30 o'clock.

The annual Christman party of the We-man's club was held in their room a re-cent afternoon with Mrs. Carl Alford pre-siding. The meeting had the atmosphere of a jolly Christman spirit. An invita-tion to attend the Hearthstone club, the Hartford Council of Jewish Women and Hartford's Women's club annual lun-cheon in Hartford, was read by the president, Miss Elisabeth Abbe of Windham, gave an interesting appeal for a contribu-tion to the women's colleges of the Orient. The remainder of the program was then placed in charge of Mrs. Frank P. Fen-ton. A fireplace had been arranged on the stage with Christmas stockings, each member receiving a present. Gards were enjoyed by some while others embroidered. A dainty luncheon was served and the party broke up after spending a very enjoyable afternoon. There is to be special Christmas musi and singing at the services of the Meth-odist church Sunday. At the morning service solos will be rendezed by Miss Ruth Herrick and Charles Jordan. The Epworth League will hold a special meet-ing early in the evening after which the church choir under the direction of Edwin F. Cross will render the two part Christ Mrs. H.
